Vampire Bats

Although most bats feed on insects, vampire bats live off blood, not human blood (as depicted in the movies) but the blood of cows, horses and other large animals. To bite their victims vampire bats use sharp incisor teeth, then suck up the blood from the wounds by curling their tongues into tubes. If their host is sleeping, the bats' attack may not even wake up their victim. Found only in South America, vampire bats are active during the darkest periods of the night.

"How I Spent My Summer Vacation"

Reporter

Lauren Ferguson

Newark, DE

VACATION WITH MY GRANDMOTHER

Because my parents had to work, I thought my summer was going to be boring. Then my grandmother called and asked if my older brother and I wanted to vacation with her. I was very excited! The next week we were on our way. We went to Virginia to visit Harper's Ferry. My brother had hoped to see a ghost there. Harper's Ferry was the site of a famous battle from America's civil war, and many people died in the fight. Some people, like my brother, believe that the soldiers' spirits are still around. I don't know about that but I did learn a great deal about America's history and the War Between The States. While in Virginia, we visited underground caverns. The caves were 50 feet underground. We had to take an elevator to get to them. The cavern was so deep that no sunlight could reach it, much less keep it warm. Even though it was summer, we had to wear heavy sweatshirts. The cave was full of mineral formations called 'stalagmites' (which grow from the bottom) and 'stalactites' (which hang from the top). They looked like giant teeth. Still, the colors of the rocks were astoundingly beautiful. From there we went to Tennessee and saw the Smoky Mountains and the Cherokee Indian reservation. From there we drove to Delaware, to see more exciting sites! We got home a bit ago, and thus far, I haven't had a boring moment all summer... and this is just the beginning!

THANKS FOR ALL THE LETTERS ON "HOW I SPENT MY SUMMER VACATION". I HAD A LOT OF FUN READING THEM ALL! -VICTOR

EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

Last year Archie made comic book history with the never-to-be-forgotten LOVE SHOWDOWN. The news media wouldn't let up in its quest to "get the scoop" on who Archie finally chooses, Betty or Veronica.

Well hold on to your hats, Archie fans. Once again Archie's hometown of Riverdale is about to be turned upside down in a three-issue crossover. The story entitled HOUSE OF RIVERDALE actually begins in WORLD OF ARCHIE #17 DEC. (on sale Sept. 26) as a 5-page prologue. In this opening "teaser" Archie and his friends learn that the old Riverdale House is about to be torn down. Believing that this house should be considered a landmark, they decide to save it from destruction. However, it is soon discovered there is a "price to pay" as a forbidding figure peers down at them from an upstairs window. What is the mystery behind the old house?

HOUSE OF RIVERDALE was written by Batton Lash who, if you recall, wrote the incredible ARCHIE MEETS THE PUNISHER issue. The art features the talents of Stan Goldberg, Dan DeCarlo and Henry Scarpelli. Part One of this epic tale begins in ARCHIE #442 DEC. (on sale Oct. 10), Part Two in BETTY & VERONICA #95 JAN. (on sale Oct. 24) and Part Three in JUGHEAD #76 JAN. (on sale Oct. 31). October 31st? Could it be that the conclusion to the HOUSE OF RIVERDALE actually falls on HALLOWEEN? I love when I do that. Everyone thinks I'm so smart. Wait! Hold the applause! Just doin' my job.

As a side note, if you place the covers top to bottom (as shown), voila! You have one big wild and crazy scene. Tut, tut, another stroke of genius.
